

Family members of Marriage Migrants (F-1-5)

ELIGIBILITY

• In need of support for childcare (pregnancy or childcare)

Where a marriage migrant or a Korean spouse is pregnant and/or rearing a child who needs so is in need of support for childcare, the inviter can invite the visa applicant by the end of September of the year when the child reaches 9 years old. (1 applicant per child, maximum two times per child, the parents of the marriage migrant can apply at the same time or in sequence)

Inviter

• Single parent or multi-child family (with 3 or more underage children)

The inviter can invite the visa applicant by the end of September of the year when the child reaches 12 years old. (1 applicant per child, the parents of the marriage migrant can apply at the same time or in sequence, with no limitation on the number of invitations)

Applicant (= Invitee)

1. Parents of Marriage Migrant
2. Where the parent(s) of a marriage migrant cannot enter the country due to death, illness, or age, legal siblings or children from a previous marriage of the inviter can apply. (*To be eligible, the invited siblings or children from previous marriage shall not have any underage children.)

※ Limitation where the inviter does not follow the parental responsibility to send a child to school

- Where a child is at the school age, however, when the parent/s do not send the child to school, the person cannot act as an inviter.
- However, where a child's admission or attendance is delayed due to unforeseen reasons such as illness, the applicant can be invited by the end of September when the child reaches the 3rd grade (general) or the end of September when the child reaches the 6th grade (single parent · multi-child family) regardless of the age of the child.

VISA TYPE

- Single entry visa up to 90 days (three months)

DOCUMENTS FROM APPLICANT

1. Visa application form and a 3.5x 4.5cm photo taken in the past 6 months

2. Original passport and a copy
(with at least 6 months remainder validity from the date of the visa application)

3. Letter of Pledge on Unemployment (Official form can be downloaded from KVAC or the Embassy's website)

4. Family Reference Documents

- Parents
 - ☒ Birth certificate, adoption certificate (adoptive parents), marriage certificate, all certificates shall be printed out from E-Mongolia.
 - ☒ Family photos
- Siblings
 - ☒ Inviter's birth certificate, applicant(invitee)'s birth certificate, applicant(invitee)'s marriage relation certificate, all certificates shall be printed out from E-Mongolia.
 - ☒ Family photos
- Children from a previous marriage
 - ☒ Birth certificate printed out from E-Mongolia
 - ☒ Family photos

5. Supporting documents to explain why the parent(s) of the inviter cannot travel to Korea (applicable persons)

- Supporting documents that can prove that the parent(s) of the inviter cannot travel to Korea due to old age (over 60 years old)
- Death certificate or supporting document related to a health condition such as illness (issued by any of the designated hospitals: National Trauma and Orthopedic Research Center, National Cancer Center, First, Second, and Third Central Hospitals, National Center for Communicable Diseases, Intermed Hospital, Grandmed Hospital, and Songdo Hospital)

6. TB test report (issued by any of the designated hospitals: National Trauma and Orthopedic Research Center, First, Second, and Third Central Hospitals, National Center for Communicable Diseases, Grandmed Hospital, Songdo Hospital, and Gyals Medical Center)

※ The applicant must not have received any departure order or eviction notice in Korea in the past.

DOCUMENTS FROM INVITER

1. Copy of official government ID

2. Invitation Letter (Official form can be downloaded from KVIC or the Embassy's website)

- Letter of Guarantee (Period of guarantee should be three years upon entry to the country; (Official form can be downloaded from KVIC or the Embassy's website)
- Letter of Pledge from Inviter (Official form can be downloaded from KVIC or the Embassy's website)

3. Family Reference Documents issued in Korea (issued in the past 3 months)

- Basic certificate, family relations certificate, marriage relationship certificate, resident register, family relationship certificate issued of the child(ren)

※ Where the inviter is pregnant, the inviter shall submit a pregnancy medical report or a pregnancy journal.

※ Where the number of children is 2 or more, the family relations certificates of all children shall be submitted. In case of an adopted child, an adoption relation certificate must be submitted.

4. Proof documents for residence (both the certified copy of the real estate register and the lease agreement)

5. Where child(ren) is a school-aged child(ren), proof of enrollment shall be submitted. (applicable persons)

6. Supporting documents under humane conditions (applicable persons)

- (Serious health condition/serious illness) medical bill receipt or others stating 'serious health condition/serious illness (serious intractable disease)' or 'extended health insurance'
- (Severe disability) disability certificate or others

※ Serious illness or disability

- Where a marriage migrant, Korean spouse, or child has a serious illness or serious disability
- Severe disability can be recognized where the disability certificate states "severe disability" or that "the degree of disability is severe" under the 'degree of overall disability' section.

- Where the inviter is a registered marriage migrant holding a permanent residency (F-5-2) visa: Required documents of the Korean spouse shall be submitted.
- Where the inviter is a single parent family: The children's basic certificate, family relation certificate, resident register, and marriage relation certificate with the previous spouse shall be submitted.

※ Where the inviter or any persons who entered the country with the invitation from the same inviter has violated the Korean law, the inviter can act as an inviter only after 5 years after the closing of the incident. Under humane conditions, the inviter can act as an inviter again only after a year after the closing of the incident.